As we welcome April with open arms, we are excited to bring you another month filled with meaningful activities and dedicated care here in Arbor Gardens. With spring in full bloom, our team is committed to fostering an environment that promotes engagement, joy, and overall well-being for our beloved residents. This month, we have an array of stimulating activities planned, tailored specifically to support cognitive function and enhance quality of life. This month we will enjoy picnic lunches in the courtyard amongst the flowers and in the sun. We have several spring time crafts planned to allow our residents and staff time to work together and create relationships. We will have an antique show and tell, where we aim to reminisce on the old with new friends! This spring we will provide opportunities for meaningful connections and moments of joy for each resident.
