Life Together

I am so very proud of our residents!!! They are making new friends and building relationships. They are loving learning new engagement activities. Each of them makes an effort to encourage each other and help a friend and neighbor with any activity we are engaged in. They spur one another along in exercise class to keep going and finish strong. They pray for one another and always ask if someone is doing ok if they do not see them. They are truly a community of kindness, helpfulness, family and love. Thank you for sharing them with us!!!!
